Response Due Date: Friday, August 12, 2022, 11:59 p.m. Alaska Time

Email Complete Proposal To: grants@aknwrc.org

The Alaska Native Women's Resource Center (AKNWRC) issues a request for proposals (RFP) to sub-grant funds received for the Family Violence Prevention & Services Support for Survivors of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault for Culturally Specific Populations Grant Program through the American Rescue Plan. The AKNWRC has a preference required by the FVPSA funding agency to supplement funding for culturally specific community-based sexual assault and domestic violence organizations; urban Indian organizations, and LGBTQ + two - spirited organizations. All Alaska based service providers serving Alaska Native survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence are encouraged to apply if the majority of their clients served are AN and they want to develop or improve their culturally specific services for AN survivors. Scoring criteria is available upon request.

AKNWRC is soliciting proposals from eligible Alaska and community-based nonprofits described above that provide culturally specific activities/services for Alaska Native survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence to address emergent needs resulting from public health concerns as well as promote strategic partnership development and collaboration in response to public health concerns for Alaska Native survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence. Each applicant must include in their proposal a sustainability plan for continuing culturally specific services for Alaska Native survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence after the end of this project.
